HOMOPHOBIA IN SERBIA

- Last days we all were witnesses about last events in Belgrade, and what happened when we tried to organize pride day. We all know that Serbia is homophobic country, but it overcome all our expectations.

SERBIAN LAW

- National Assembly of Serbia has adopted a comprehensive anti-discrimination law, banning discrimination on the grounds of race, religion, sexual orientation, gender or other factors.
- In the current version of the law sexual orientation is specifically mentioned as a ground of non-discrimination in Article 21. A clause prohibiting discrimination on the ground of gender identity was removed from Article 21 but an alternative clause prohibiting discrimination against transsexuals was added in Article 20, regulating gender discrimination issues.

SERBIAN LAW

- In Serbia there is no law about transexual persons, but in City halls they usually help us in way of changing name and new birth certificate. Problem starts when someone like me want to change documents, and stay in marriage.
- There is even no debate about same sex marriage.

MEDICAL TEAM

- For transexuals there is a medical team, with psychiatrists, endocrinologist and surgeons.
